HOTELS.

MOSE HOME THIEVES.—Geo. D. Michael and James D. Martin were arrested yesterday in Jeffersonville, Ind., by Officers O'Connell and Booker, on suspicion of their having stolen a cream-colored mare which they had in their possession. They told a number of inconsistent stories about it, from all of which the officers gathered enough to arrive at the conclusion that the mare had been stolen in Anderson county.

LIQUORS.

STEPS IN THE WRONG PLACE.—Somebody had a contract to put a stone step at the door of the Twelfth street Station-house. That somebody hauled a big rock down there, flung it over the fence, and it's been lying there ever since; in other words, all summer. The habitudes of that institution think it was a very wrong step.

WALNUT STREET.—On the afternoon of every day except Saturdays and Sundays, at about 5 o'clock, this street, between First and Eleventh, is swarming alive with children of all sizes and colors, returning, laughing, shouting, and frolicking, home from school. We would advise hypocondriacs to crawl down that way, the sight would revive them.

OPERAGLASSATIC.

George Ann Tyler is an admirer of drama, and for the purpose of getting a better view of things when she goes to see the Black Crook, and to "eclipse the charms of other 'culed critters,' she just took along Gen. Teomasson's opera-glass and arrayed herself in some of her jewelry—$200 to answer.

ADAMS ON THE RAMPAGE.

George Spalding, with the intention of appearing as Alexander Dumas at a "fancy colored ball," slipped into Tom Green's store clothes and took along $350 to Ben. George's money to treat her. Josephine will report her success on the coming Friday, and we left.

AN OLD CUTTER GONE.—Mr. John B. Wolf, of the firm of Cornell & Co., an old and well-known citizen and merchant of this city, died yesterday at his residence on Green street, between Second and Third, Mr. C. memory will be ever green in the hearts of our citizens, as he was possessed of many noble virtues, prominent among which was endless charity to the needy. He was also a man of fine literary capacity, and we have little doubt that they have already reaped a rich harvest from their dead relatives.

SHOOTED TO BE STOLEN.—Officer Thos. Lasek has in his possession a diamond back ladies gold hunting case watch, full jewel, made by H. Mathey Payette, which was taken from a negro prisoner in the jail. The watch is supposed to have been stolen, and the owner can recover it by calling at the office of the Chief of Police.

SHOOTING AFFRAY.

A. G. Robinson and Henry Duncan were arrested yesterday for fighting. Robinson was charged with assault and battery and Duncan with shooting at Robinson with intent to kill. Both parties were bailed. The case will be investigated in the City Court this morning. We didn't learn the particulars of the affray.

HORSE THIEF CAPTURED.

One day during the State Fair a fine roan mare was stolen from a gentleman in attendance, whose name we did not get. The thief, a negro boy, was captured yesterday five miles beyond Jeffersonville, Ind., by Officers O'Connell and Booker. The mare was also recovered, and the thief bailed off.
